Collaborators will also be asked to take some time on their own at home to rehearse their parts in the opera and record themselves singing them. Everyone will be given a musical track to practice and record to and will be supported throughout by Second Movement's team.

The project will also involve professional musicians who may join the online sessions.

What to Expect

You don't need any previous experience of singing or performing to join Your Story, Your Voice, Your Stage.

Michael Betteridge, composer Your Story, Your Voice, Your Stage will host all sessions.

If you would like to come along and join the rehearsal sessions without taking part in the recording, just let us know when you sign up.

All rehearsal sessions will be recorded for safeguarding purposes.

Recordings of group sessions may be shared privately with team members of Second Movement and Tourettes Action for safeguarding purposes.

We may wish to share some material from the rehearsal sessions in public, or use it in the film, we will only do so with the consent of the group.

The finished recording will be shared with everyone who has contributed to the piece.
